- ARTICLE 17: Motion was made to accept the Article, as read. Motion was defeated and the following discussion took place.

Extensive discussion ensued with the following action taken:

Moderator David Ott stated "that we have a closed Warrant" Mr. Ott did, however, allow for a "straw vote" (show of hands) in order to show who was in favor of the wage increase. Citizen Steven Einstein then addressed the Chair, after the vote, and stated that as it appeared that the citizens of Ogunquit favored the increase, he would request that a Special Town Meeting be called (within four to six weeks) to deal with the Proposal presented to the Town Meeting floor by Citizen Kevin O'Neil. It was stipulated that any increase would be retroactive to the Town Meeting date of April 6, 1987.

Following the above discussion, A motion was made to accept the original article, as read. Motion seconded. Passed, as read, by a show of hands.
